3) The Comm has sent a copy of G.O dated 4.1.1941 sanctioning one allowance of Rs 2/- p.m to the peon of the municipal office who attends to circulation of papers to the members of the Council and the Managing Committee. The G.O. sanctioning one rupee allowance to the other orderly is said to be not found in available records and old one

4) The present proposal is to enhance the allowance to both the peons to Rs 5/-. This allowance to the circulation work appears reasonable though it is not known what allowance the Corporation is paying to the circulation peons and how many have been put on this work. Such information might be useful for the disposal of this case.

Sir,

Subject - Enhancement of allowance to the circulation peons.

I write to state that an allowance of Rs. 2/- and Re 1/- is being given to two peons in this office as cycle allowance for attending to the circulation of papers relating to committees and Council subjects among the members of the Council and committees and also for the delivery of urgent tappals etc., This has been in force since 1943-44, so far as references are available at present. Compared with the work that existed in the years 1943-44, the work in recent years has very much increased, particularly, on account of the abolition of the system of unpaid service postage and the two peons who are entrusted with the work have been - working hard every day from morning till late in the evening without rest. Many a time there will be no time for them to take their meals even To mitigate the hardship caused to these two peons the Managing Committee and the Council felt it very necessary to enhance the allowance that was sanctioned to them when conditions of life were much cheaper and work was also lighter than what it is at present The Council have therefore resolved to give each of the circulation peons an allowance of Rs. 5/- per mensem. I enclose a copy of the resolution of the Council in this behalf and request that orders of Government may kindly be - be obtained. The cost on this behalf will be debited to the provision made under A2. General Administration of the Mysore City Municipality.

Yours faithfully,

Municipal Commissioner.
